

Battle of Grunwald

Significant for European power balance

- Strengthened the alliance between Poland and Lithuania
- Impacted the outcome of future European conflicts.
- Shifted power from Teutonic Knights to Poland-Lithuania

Marked the decline of Teutonic Order

- Ended the Order's attempts at further expansion.
- Forced the Order to accept peace negotiations
- Led to territorial and financial difficulties

One of the largest medieval battles

- Involved over 100,000 troops
- Lasted for several hours
- Resulted in high casualties on both sides.

