

A top-down view of a rustic wooden platter featuring three large, grilled sausages with a charred exterior. The sausages are arranged diagonally, with the bottom one resting on a bed of fresh green lettuce. Surrounding the sausages are various accompaniments: a whole red chili pepper, a sprig of fresh rosemary, a cluster of five bright red cherry tomatoes, and a small white ceramic bowl filled with yellow mustard. A single clove of garlic and some peppercorns are also scattered on the platter. In the upper left corner, a glass of golden beer with a white head of foam is partially visible. The entire scene is set against a background of weathered wooden planks.
